

Curatoribus expenset & commendet, nisi ad factum pro candore & suavitatem sua, si rem. Ego, qui faverentioribus, ad. Curatores experit, fuero, co magis, ne de divina voluntate confirmatum putabo: In reliquis Indu. de in omnibus vera suavitatem ac ductu J. A. sequar promissis Jey J. A. Sono publico. In fossit. Vale Scrib. Breun a. d. 27. Julij 1636.

promissis
T (qua in bonum iusta voluntate & recta ex officio in tua voluntatibus solet esse)

J. A.

observantia

Ad D. Lackerna

Jabellam suam sunt nisi ipsa, pro negligentia de causa, quod ^{sanctitatem} ~~mandam~~ ^{ordinariorum}, sunt aliquando cursum, & de Civitate in Civitate solent ferre literas, aliquando experit eorum & tunc venere.

Fragment of a document with a red wax seal and a signature. The seal is circular and red, located on the left side of the fragment. The signature is written in cursive and reads "Breun". To the right of the signature, there is a vertical inscription: "Reverendo ac Sanctissimo viro / Dno Joanni Cecilio, PP. / Joly de professori, consistorio / Palatinum". The fragment also contains some faint, illegible text.