3rd. Jan. 1907.

My dear Professor,

Dr Junker has told me that you wished to know when I should come to Berlin. I intend to leave here on the evening of the 5th. Jan. (next Wednesday) so that I hope to be in Berlin on next Thursday morning. I will call to the museum on Thursday before midday. If you are not in the Museum on the 10th you could perhaps leave a note for me in the Museum letting me know where I can best meet you. But there is scarcely any danger of my not meeting you as I shall probably remain in Berlin from Thursday morning until the following Tuesday morning (15th. Jan.). I shall very probably come to your lectures on Friday and Monday. Dr. Junker and I have been working hard. I can tell you all about our work when I see you.

With best wishes for the New Year

I am, my dear Professor, Very sincerely yours

O. Boylan
