— [1909]

Doctor Adolf Erman:

My dear Doctor Erman—

Thank you very much for your reply to my letter: it is one more instance of the kindness and courtesy I have always received from German scholars, both when I was a student in Berlin, and afterward. I had already written to Professor Borchardt in regard to the Abusir reliefs, and had received from him a most generous reply. I am much interested in regard to I , and am greatly obliged to you for your notice.

Thanking you once more,
I am, yours faithfully

Orin Bates

Dear Doctor Emswiler:

Thank you very much for your reply to my letter; it is an most interesting of the kindness and courtesy of the received from German scholars, both

when I was a student in Berlin, and afterwards. I had already written to Professor Borchardt in regard to the Alvaric relics, and had

from him a most generous reply. I am much interested in regard to

and am greatly obliged to
for your notice.

Thanking you once more,
Yours faithfully,
Chris. Emswiler
