5542 Pentridge Street,
Philadelphia, Pa.,
April 17, 1936.

Seiner Hochwohlgeboren
Herrn Geheimrat Universitäts-Professor
Dr. Adolf Erman,
Berlin-Dahlem, Peter Lennéstrasse 36,
Berlin, Germany.

Dear Professor Erman:

I regret extremely that unfortunate personal circumstances have prevented my acknowledging sooner your very kind letter of March tenth. Your permission to translate your "Religion der Ägypter" is most sincerely appreciated. I hope soon to begin making the necessary contacts to find a publisher and shall inform you as to my progress. I am writing at this time to your publisher, Walter de Gruyter & Co.

With best wishes and highest esteem,

Yours sincerely,

Sadie Bell.
