FROM DR. A. M. BLACKMAN, 24 BARDWELL ROAD, OXFORD.

Dear Professor Erman, 12.10.19.

Many thanks for your post-card. Directly I hear from you that the off-print of the article I sent you has arrived safely I will send you a copy to Dr. Grapow. I have a long art. on dustations appearing in the next number of the Revue de Travaux. I shall be interested to have your opinion on it and also on "The House of the Morning" which I have sent you.

With regard to your question. I have received copies of the ÄZ. from Leipzig, also of Vogelsang's Kommentar zu den Klagen des Bauer, and of Schäfers recent book on Nubia in SBAW. So I suppose that it is quite all right to send printed matter to England.

How soon will the Dictionary
(Wörterbuch) begin to appear

Yours v. truly.

A. M. Blackman

I will wait just a little longer before send you the copy of Dendroica
Junken, as it is a large book.

I will tell him, however, soon, and to send it to you for him. Many thanks for saying I may do so.

Helm
Professor Erman,
