17.2.20. FROM DR. A. M. BLACKMAN, 24 BARDWELL ROAD, OXFORD.

Dear Professor Sman.

I have received the following communication with regard to the packet of articles I sent you. "I have to inform you that a Registered letter No. 41 addressed to Professor A. Sman at Dahlew, Berlin and posted at North Parade Oxford, on the 2nd of December last is recorded as having been duly delivered in a Mail despatched from this County. An enquiry as to its subsequent treatment has been addressed to the Foreign Post Office concerned & as soon as a reply is received you shall be informed of its purport." Will you enquire at your end? I have given you ^{the} No. 41 & the date of despatch from here. I do hope you will get the packet safely. I hope Dr. Srapon has received his all right. I have tried in vain to get a copy of your "Handbuch d. ägypt. Religion" 2^e Auflage

This is all of print. However - why say he has't a copy either. Is there any second hand book seller in Berlin who is like I have it. I am also trying (in vain!) to get Mariette's "Abydos" &
"Mastabas" I am reading some more articles shortly. I much want your criticism on my views about hesitation
