Oct. 7th 1936

My dear Professor Sroman,

It was such a great pleasure to me to have, at last, the pleasure of meeting you & Frau Sroman & your family. I shall always regard that afternoon with you in Dahlen <sup>as a very</sup> memorable occasion in my life.

Now I have to thank you for the most kind & welcome gift of your "Die Welt am Nil" which I shall read with great interest & enjoyment.

I hope it will not be long before I come to visit you again.

By the time I left Germany, I thought I had no time to study the language, my German was more fluent & intelligible. I did not say the half <sup>of what</sup> I wanted to say to you.
When I saw you - so early during my stay in Berlin.
But I hope I need not you understand how much I enjoyed my visit to you & what a joy it was to me to meet you personally
- after having only met you in your books & in correspondence. My kindest remembrances to Frau Orman, your family & yourself, Yours very sincerely, A. M. Blackman
