7. 4. '89.

Dear Sir

I am very much obliged for the information which you have kindly sent me in reference to work with you.
I have, however,

Decided, on the
emphatic advice of Prof.
Pommel, to come to Berlin this month, &
offer myself as a student in your
"Elementar Kolleg."

I think that it may,
after all, be possible
for me to follow
you already; and if so, I should, of course, have gained time by so doing, & be prepared probably to do somewhat more advanced work with you in the Winter

- Semester.

I shall take advantage
very gladly of the opportunities you may be able to give me for working at Koptic also.

Hoping, then, to have the pleasure of seeing you
in about a fortnight,

I remain

Yours very truly

Walter E. Crum
