Prof Dr Adolf Erman.

Dear friend: - For such I feel that I may be allowed to call you after even so brief an acquaintance.
I would have written to you now though I had no special occasion to do so except to again thank you for the kindness shown me in Berlin.

The knowledge however which has just reached me that you not only sent out to me the postal card of my poor sick friend at Karlsbad but actually telegraphed him that I had left the city on my way to London
- this I say increases my desire to again express my appreciation of your courtesy and my heart-felt hope that at some time not far distant I may be allowed to welcome yourself & good wife to Ginniken.

With cordiality - Constance M Coburn
