My dear Coman.

Many thanks for your very kind letter. I am starting for Leipzig on Friday and reach there on Saturday night. Steindorf leaves for Berlin, I hear, on the 17th; so I would, if it suited your arrangements,

go that day also to Berlin, or rather, to Steglitz, since Frau Brunn is not afraid of Vegetarians! I would propose to leave Berlin again on the 20th, as I am bound to be here on the Saturday.

I wish, for many reasons, that you lived nearer to London — among others, because of the horrible long journey and the awful boat!

It will be a great pleasure to see you all again & it is very kind indeed of you to take me in.

Yrs. ever
W. B. Lewis.

You know what I am coming for — to hear your opinions upon Coptic dictionaries!
