Dear Frau Erman

Your long kind letter gave me very much pleasure and we are both so glad that the parcel was welcome & useful.
We will send another parcel some time soon & put in some sugar & bacon if possible - A pound of the latter seems so terribly little and by the rules apparently we may not send more - We often use that 'Atora' sweet ourselves if we have none by us from the butcher and it makes very light puddings.
I am so glad the butter kept well, it is a special sort that keeps good a long time. One can also get dried eggs in packets, very useful for cooking - I do hope 1924 will bring you health and happiness and easier conditions. To judge from our papers the outlook for Germany seems slightly more hopeful -

I am very much better now and we are going away for a change this week which I hope will quite set me up.
I am going to stay with my brother, mother and sister in turn, which will be more comfortable than hotels or lodgings and pleasanter too
- also less expensive!
With love and all good wishes to you all Yours ever aff. M.C.
