[CRUM]

My dear Frau Erman
I have been very remiss about writing - not only to you -, but that doesn't mean I don't often think of you both, & your letters are always a great pleasure to us both - Now I hear you have actually attained to seventy years (No' its hard to believe it!) & I must send you congratulations & all good wishes - We are all getting old, but that matters little as long as one can work & you are doing so much to help Prof. Eiman & are both so ^{terrenially} young in all that really ^{matters} counts, that your actual age doesn't seem to count. Walter too is as young as ever in mind & ways & enthusiasms, & I scramble along behind, helping all I can - 1932 was a hard year for all of us, perhaps 1933 will wipe out its memory - Walter says my favourite phrase is "I can't help hoping," & he's going to inscribe it on my tomb.

Not a bad motto perhaps in these days?

With all good wishes to you both Yours aff Margaret
