The Parishes,
Westbury on Trym,
Bristol.

May 17th / 89.

Dear Dr. Ermann.

I am extremely obliged for your kindness in having the casts of scara-baei made, & for sending them to me. It is an act of courtesy which I highly appreciate, & shall not forget. I hope if there is anything I can do at any time to forward your wishes, you will do me

The favour to give me that opportunity.

I much regretted
your absence when I visited Berlin. I fear
I am unlikely to go abroad this year; but when next I visit the capital of the German Empire I hope I may have the great pleasure of finding you at the Museum.

Your wonderful collection has made the deepest impression on my memory. I think I remember not only all I saw in your galleries, but the very place in which every work of sculpture stands, & the very glass case in which every small

Object is enclosed. The taste with which all is arranged, the splendour of the building, & the unparalleled beauty & perfection of the antiquities took me wholly by surprise.
And I find Berlin to be the finest & most attrac-tive capital in Europe.

I try to be remembered essentially to Dr. Steudner, & am dear Sir

Yours most truly
Amelia B. Edwards
