Dear Dr. Erman,

It is most generous and kind on your part to have sent me the magnificent series of Memoirs which arrived safely yesterday. Allow me to thank you very sincerely for them. They are doubly valuable to me because all my Egyptological studies are the product of leisure hours (when not engaged in the more serious business of earning my living) and accordingly I am thrown entirely on the resources of my own small library so these additions to it are most important and appreciated. At the only hours I am able to study, the Museums and Libraries are closed.

I enclose a few notes of my own, but I fear that they are of no importance.

With many thanks and kind regards,

I am, Yours truly,

Warren A. Dawson
