My dear Professor Eroman

It was very kind of you & your wife to make me partake in your happiness at seeing your daughter settling down to what I trust is her happiness. I offer my cordial felicitations to you both & to Fräulein Davis. It seems Curious to think of my little friend of a few years ago preparing to take up such responsibilities, but I am delighted to hear of it, especially in these days of the vile "Suffragettes" & man-haters.

My wife and I are just packing up for our yearly migration and eternal unrest. We leave for the Trants on Oct. 10. I am sorry to say that I am not publishing this year but hope to next summer. It is not my fault. I am going to devote some years at length to full size facsimiles of Tibetan texts. It is so slow as to seem horrible waste of time yet no one else will do it. If you Have anything I can help you in at Thebes in the way of verification or collation on a small scale let me know. We are also thinking of tackling the Temple of Darius at Thebes.

I hope the home at Dahlen is proving all it promised to be.
My wife whom I hope you may get to know before long, joins me in cordial greetings. I have taught her to read German & I hope she will soon talk & fluently. Believe me

Yours very faithfully
W. de Garia Dacier
