My dear Professor Eoman,

Many & real thanks for the little Wörterbuch (may it soon grow into the big one!) which came just as I was turning from the slaving of book plates (El Amarna III) to the text, & will prove an invaluable "Wegweiser". Books of such small size, yet crammed with the things Necessary, like the portmanteau of a war correspondent, are indeed welcome to a wandering Jew like myself to whom Bunscher is as impossible as a wife.

I hope the Tyrol is doing or has done you much good and that extra
- German soil is proving ^{grateful to} kindly to these international eyes of yours which Providence has put in a German head.

Auf baldigem Wiedersehen
Ihr dankbarer
