Dear Professor Eiman,

I am very glad to think that you are going to have some holiday after all: you will be needing it after this hot summer in Berlin.

I leave for Turin in the very first days of September: I have attempted to transcribe one or two of the papyri from the publication, but without much success.

About the money - I shall not need it until I (or my wife, at least) returns to Berlin.

The work ought to be very fascinating, and I hope I shall have a good harvest to show you.

Meanwhile, I have been saving my strength! Lawn-tennis and such like has been an excellent substitute for Egyptology this summer.

I am glad you have good news of Fran Professor and the others. We are all well and flourishing.

I will send you my address from Turin Very sincerely yours
Alan H Gardiner
