Dear Professor Eрман

I greatly appreciated your kind note of congratulations, and all the more so since Frau Professor, in a note to my wife, had also indirectly conveyed them to me. But really I don't know what Hedi can have been saying about this Doctor's title; of course it is more than a German Doctor's title, i.e. cannot be obtained so early, but I do not think it much of an honour; but wives and fathers like to see some "tangible result"!

When I was in Oxford in May I wrote you a letter on a grammatical point which I think has not been sufficiently noticed, — the infinitive with a suffix as subject. This letter I discovered in my overcoat pocket the other day! I have written out the quotations anew, but fear they will be too late for the next addition of the grammar.

I have been busy almost all the last months in making facsimiles of ostraca — a so tedious and slow task. I tried to find someone to depute the work to, but I don't

But can't you get away from Dahlen for a few weeks? The change of air and occupation would be bound to make all the difference

With best greetings from all of us to you all

Sincerely yours

Alan Hardiner

Is not 3s the reading of  $\pi$ , to judge from M.K.  $\int \pi \frac{e}{s} iwc$ ? I suppose the words must be identical?
