Dear Professor Erman

My friend, the Swedish Orchestra-director Professor Schneewitz, is starting for Berlin today, and has been kind enough to consent to take across for me some copies of Peet's volume on the Mayer Papyri and the second volume of the Theban Tombs Series. The packet is a rather large one, and one of the books is too big to be sent by letter post registered.

I want one copy of each of the books for yourself, Schäfer Möller and Grapow, and my difficulty is only how to convey the packet from Profersn Schneevogt's hotel (Hotel Baltic vis-à-vis Stettiner Bahnhof) to you. Profersn Schneevogt would gladly have brought you the books in person, but he has to travel straight on to Stockholm, and so the only possibility for him is to leave the parcel with the Nightporter at his hotel.

Your name will be marked on the parcel. Is it asking too

1 much of you to get one of the Museum assistants, or Grapow, or Henri to fetch the parcel and to distribute the books for me between the four recipients?

Professr Schneevoyt reaches Berlin on the night of the 17th - 18th.

Excuse this short letter, and believe me, with kindest regards to Frau Professr

Yours very sincerely

Alan H. Gardiner
