Dear Professor Eiman

Your letter asking me whether the first Beatty papyrus had yet been published reached me just before I started on my holiday, and I was too busy and tired to reply to it at once. I am sorry to say I was unable to finish the book before the end of July, and I dare say it may be a whole year still before it appears.
The book is to be rather an elaborate one, with a very full vocabulary

Ångholm is giving us, as usual, a wonderfully restful and pleasant holiday, though the weather has not been all that it might be. We leave here on 20th, and are then going for a short tour through the South-German towns. I hope to be in Berlin from Sept. 15 onwards for a fortnight or so, and hope that I shall be able to work in the Wörterbuch then. It will be a great pleasure to see all my Berlin friends again.

Very best greetings from yours very sincerely

Alan H Gardner
