An referring me again to the circular letter I find that I have to send it to Lange. Nevertheless I send my cheerful written letter to you as it expresses my great appreciation.

Dear Professor Eiman

In returning to you* the circular letter in reference to the Wörterbuch, let me express my pleasure and my gratitude to you for taking the matter up in the exact spirit of my proposal.
I am very glad to see that the suggestion has met with the approval of all members of the Commission thus far, and I feel assured that all Egyptologists outside the Commission will be very glad that this decision has been taken.

We have a full house at present since both Ibscher and Dr. Carl Becker are staying here. I am very busy with the Chester Beatty papyri, but have altered the whole plan of my publication. The text of the volume with the Plates will be rather short, consisting only of translations and sachliche Bemerkungen. I am keeping my purely philological comments for another place

It was a great pleasure to see you in Berlin, and I hope it will not be so very long before I pay you a visit again.

Heddie joins me in the very best greetings
Yours very sincerely

Alan Gardiner
