Dear Professor Eiman

It is now nearly a week since I received your most kind letter, and I must not delay any longer to thank you for it, and, in anticipation, also for your book. The latter has not yet arrived, but can surely not long fail to do so. The sample page I have seen, and I look forward to the entire book with the keenest interest and pleasure. It is really a most wonderful feat to have accomplished such a work in conditions so adverse, and I beg you to accept this expression of my most sincere admiration. I shall write again later, in receipt of the book. Meanwhile please accept my hearty good wishes for the New Year to you and yours Very sincerely yours

Alan H Gardiner
