Dear Professor Eiman

Your Late - Egyptian grammar has just reached me, and I write at once to congratulate you on your marvellous achievement, the crown of a wonderful career of research and discovery. I had not expected to see a book of such size and completeness, and even after

TELL PARK BLDG
EDIB PARK BLDG
LAKESIDE ROAD
HOLLAND PARK W.M.

The cursory glance I have given to it I can see that it will provide me with instructive and valuable reading for many a week to come.

I am glad I was able to help you with texts which would otherwise have been inaccessible to you, and am also pleased to note that my various articles in Late-Egyptian grammar have been of some assistance to you. ^{Finally} Finally let me say how sensitive I am to the great honour you have conferred upon me by dedicating the book to me

With best greetings to Fran Professor and yourself

Yours very sincerely

Alan A Gardiner
