Dear Professor Eiman

I have not yet
written to thank you,
as I do most cordially, for the new edition of the "Religion" I am reading it in bed before I rise most mornings, and never cease to admire its most vivid mode of presentation. If only you had successors with such a style and pictorial power!

I have had a very busy autumn completing many pieces of work. The second Abydos volume is about to appear, and my Chester Beatty book is due in February & March.

Ever since the end of September Cerny<sup>m</sup> has been here working on Ostraea, which he reads quite wonderfully.
A certain Mr. Nash brought back from Egypt a few wonderfully interesting new specimens, and one in particular, which relates how a widow stole a tool from one of the Neeropolis workman is full of interesting detail, which would have greatly delighted you.

The accounts we received of your celebrations greatly thrilled us. I trust that 1935 will be a year of happiness, health and prosperity to you and yours

Very sincerely yours
Alan Gardner
