SANDRIDGE,
BOAR'S HILL,
OXFORD.

1st April 1934.

Dear Professor Eisman,

Your letter has moved me very profoundly. It is one of which I am very proud & which I shall always treasure. I should like to say just now again how deeply he prized your friendship & how much he admired your scholarship.

I think I told you that his Library will be under my care during my lifetime & will be added to as much as possible as he would have done. It will always be open for students & at my death it goes to the University of Oxford.

Please thank Frau Ermann for her kind message. I rejoice to hear she is ill & trust she will soon be well again.

With renewed thanks to you

Yours very sincerely

Hora Sippelt.
