BOAR'S HILL,
OXFORD.

Dear Professor Esmann,

The photograph is at last ready to be dispatched & I trust it will reach you safely in the course of a day or two, & that you will like it.

I would have sent you an off-print of Dr. Gardin's notice of my husband in the Journal of the Egypt Exploration Society but I understand he has himself sent me to you.

Your nation is in mourning to-day for one whom all nations respected & admired for his sterling & honest qualities. I have just been listening to a eulogy of him given by the former English Ambassador in Berlin.

And now with warmest greetings to you & Frau Erman

I am

Yours very sincerely

Rosa Saffelle
