Dear Professor Erman,

I was very glad to get your letter to-day (as I began to fear mine to you had been lost) but was still sorry to hear of the reason for the delay. I trust Frau Erman is really quite well again. Please thank her warmly for her most kind letter which shall be answered before long.

I have written at once to the Clarendon Press & have asked them to forward to you a copy of the volume of Platos of the Demotic Graffiti, though I fear it is of little use without the corresponding volume of text. This is due to come out next Spring & a copy shall be sent to you at once.

I have not as yet heard from Dr. Geopow but you will of course let him know of the arrival of the volume of Plates.

With my warmest greetings to you both.

Yours very sincerely

Yosa Griffith.

P.S. I see the number of your house is now 36 - no longer 72.
