RIVERSVALE,

ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE.

Aug. 14. 1905

Dear Professor Oman,

Thank you for your note. I have written to find a publisher for a translation of your 'Religion'. Answers come slowly, as publishers like other people are away for their holidays -

We very much enjoyed having Doris here. It was bad weather, & I was very much afraid she would find it dull with no young people in the house. but she seemed to make herself very happy. + I had a pretty letter from her yesterday at Ilfracombe -

I hope you are well. + Frau Erman come back very well after the holiday - with very kind regards from us both to both - Yours very truly

A. S. Griffith
