RIVERSVALE,

ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE.

3. I. 98.

Dear Professor Eiman

Very many thanks for the photographs. It is very kind of Fran Eiman to send hers. My wife appreciates it highly. She is to be photographed soon and will then complete the exchange.

Kahum II will reach you this week
(D. V.!). I have one important correction to make Pl. XIII. L. 22 etc we have the f. 7. 3 of the Totleben "Thus he said". Probably you will recognize this at once, but I have not yet read widely enough & when I hear I forget!

I have endless small corrections, which will appear in the Index etc. and I shall be greatly obliged to hear of anything that strikes you. I thought the mention of ~~the~~ in the Mid. Kingdom etc etc.

That Archaeological Report is a dreadful undertaking. Why did I lean out Stendroff; I fully recognised its importance!

Yours sincerely

R. H. Griffith.

I have not seen you, but I have not yet heard from you since I have I hope written to you many times, but with no answer. I am sure you are well and hope you are happy.

I am sure you are well and hope
