I am delighted to hear from Crum that Sethe has the <sup>Edinburgh</sup> Professorship.

76 Adelphi Garden,
London W.C.

21. March 1900.

Dear Professor Euman,

I am now a Correspondent Member without fear of being deposed by injudicious revealing of secrets! My wife (who is unhappily away nursing her mother) is as pleased as I am, & that is saying a very great deal —. There is no honour that I could value above this, especially knowing to whom initiation it must be primarily due! I do not know whether I ought to write formally to the Institute to thank them. In replying to the Secretary's original communication I expressed my thanks, I hope becomingly.

There was a short notice of the proceedings of the bicentenary yesterday (Tuesday) <sup>in the "standard"</sup> morning, and I shall hope to see more in the Times etc. There must have been a brilliant gathering with the venerable Mowmsen (alas for his opinion on England!) as the dozen.

That wretched Horoscope proceeds slowly.

Please give my best regards to Frau Eiman, and believe me to be ever gratefully yours

R. H. Griffith.

P.S. We are doing what we can for poor Max Müller — which I fear is very little. When we married we sent him many duplicates of our books and have continued to supply him with books from time to time. This will explain his attitude to me which would otherwise seem strange.

R.H.G.
