RIVERSVALE,

ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE.

Thompson and I look forward confidently to your accepting demotic for the Dictionary.
Wait till Gnostic, Khammas glossaries, and Crawford papyri appear! In two years from now demotic ought be firmly established, with hieratic connexions fully made out — even apart from the good work that Shegelberg is doing.

Your Zaubersprüche is indeed a tough piece of work, and very interesting. Many thanks for sending it to me.

Demotic is the absorbing subject, for which I am trying to get clear time. Even Hieroglyphs, which I am working on for lectures at Oxford seem dull, partly because good originals or facsimiles are so difficult to reach.

How many things we would have talked over if only you could have come!

Ever yours

F. Ll. Griffiths.

Dear Mother
I am writing to you to tell you how much I love you and how much I miss you.
I hope you are well and happy.
I will write to you
again soon.
Love,
Bill
