Dear Professor Euman,

It is a great event to receive a new edition of your Grammatik, the development of which has always been a matter of the greatest interest to me, and now it comes with such important changes. In former years I should have read it through at once and marked the new points. Now I am distracted by all kinds of inferior considerations — printing of Merout's memoirs, unpacking of antiquities, securing a house in Scotland for the summer! and all I can do is to hope that some new pupil will appear requiring to be coached in grammar and giving me an excuse for enjoying the new classifications and new discoveries that you record in the book,

I wonder if you will be in England when the Egyptian Exhibitions are in London in July.

The Faras antiquities will be shown at Burlington House from July 15. I hope one of your people will come to see it. Berlin must have some of the antiquities, but you & Schäfer could perhaps choose what you would like from photographs when the time comes. They will be a little present from me

Yours very truly

F. H. Griffith
