11, NORHAM GARDENS,
OXFORD.

15 June 1912

My dear Professor Suman,

Many thanks indeed for your most kind and welcome letter.

The Academy is most generous and it will be the greatest pleasure to complete the memoir for the Abhandlungen. I will consult Schäfer as to the plates.

A wealthy Englishman Mr. Walter Morrison has just offered £10,000 as a permanent endowment for the Readership in Egyptology, which hitherto has had only the standing of a temporary institution. It is to be accepted on Tuesday, and will make a great difference to the prospects of Egyptology here.

Now we want money for additional buildings at the Ashmolean Museum, which has no more room for Egyptological collections!

Yours truly

Th. Smith
