OXFORD EXCAVATIONS IN NUBIA,

MERAWI,

DONGOLA PROVINCE,

SUDAN,

EGYPT.

25 Nov. 1922.

Dear Professor Eрман,

Behold us at Napata! with a wild crane stalking about our enclosure and feeding with the turkeys.

It is a great site, and a comfortable place for working in.
But as yet we have not much promise of inscriptions or important monuments. However we have worked only three days.

I regret to say I had to leave the Old Nubian Texts at home unfinished. But I shall try to complete them when I return in April.

There is a fragment of a tombstone in the Governor's collection here which seems to be in Old Nubian. The whole of Dongola Province is full of antiquities.

Firth will probably join us at the New Year and then we may be able to explore more widely.

With our kindest remembrances to yourself and Frau Erman

Yours very truly

F. L. Griffith.
