Dear Professor Eisman,

Many thanks for your intervention. Schäfer's second letter reached me safely and I now know what to do. I hope to send him several interesting things. Sethe's book is very substantial: and seems to me to mark great progress like all his work. It is very satisfactory that the interrelations of Greeks & Egyptians are now the subject of so much good research, and that demotic is being put on a sound basis, so that those who know little or nothing of it can utilise the results. Yours very truly

F. H. Griffith
