Peter Lenné stw. 72

Dahlem bei Berlin

Germany.

11 Notham Gardens Oxford 7 October 1921.

Davies has just communicated to me the very lamentable news from Upsala, which has grieved me very much.

The blow to Egyptology is dreadful. Möller's systematic work which was always valuable seemed just to have ripened to brilliancy in the last year and I was looking forward to what ~~was~~ seemed certain to come from his past + present labours with great expectation. Gardiner had already told me of his serious illness. The losses among your brilliant pupils must distress you greatly.

F. Ll. Griffith.
