OXFORD.

My dear Professor Ergan,

Many thanks for your two letters and for the kind words you use about Nukia! I take them as applying to a group rather than an individual — including Reiner more particularly.

It is a sad account that you gave of your eyesight in your last letter. I too find that eyes do not improve with age. But however much inconvenience you suffer in that way, you are still able to use them for our advantage and I am sure that your old pursuits are still giving you much pleasure!

Blackman is actually translating your letter; he referred to it only

ST. NORBERT GARDENS
OXFORD

Yesterday and has been busy with it for some time; but he has many occupations. His address is 24 Bardwell R^d Oxford - I will remind him of your letter!

With kindest regards

Yours very sincerely

F. H. Griffith.
