Dear Erman,

We came here yesterday from Oxford to spend Christmas with relatives on the South coast. The evening before we started there came a magnificent Christmas present in the shape of Lieferung 1 of the Wörterbuch! I write to congratulate you most warmly on thus bringing the great work to its final stage with every prospect of rapid completion. You seem to have solved most successfully the problem how to produce such a difficult material in a workable form at very moderate cost, and you have given us a new instrument of research of tremendous potency!

Further, I must thank you and Grafow most warmly for presenting me with this precious gift. I feel very unworthy of it, for, unlike so many Egyptologists, I have contributed nothing to its making. But now that you have given it to me I shall at any rate try to make practical use of it, in denotie and other work.

I have bought Lange's Amenemope with me and am delighted with ~~the~~ treatment of it which owes also so much to you. I hope before long to print an English translation of the text.

With kindest remembrances from both of us, and best wishes for the New Year

Yours very sincerely

J. H. Griffith
