Dear Professor Erman,

Miss Porter tells me that the new part of the Wörterbuch has arrived, and I am eager to consult it on various points but must wait till I get home. We are spending a few weeks in the fine air of Scotland but have brought with us material for working up the Dakkeh graffiti. Lepsius' squeezes are invaluable for the many lost inscriptions, some of which however are also preserved in Hess' squeezes.

You can doubtless see that the Oriental Congress is to meet in Oxford Aug. 31 - Sept. 6 or thereabouts of next year. We much hope that you will be able to attend it, and if so that you and Frau ~~Erman~~ will make our house your headquarters and we will all do our best to receive you with suitable honour!

With our united kind regards to yourself and Frau Erman

Yours very sincerely
T. H. Griffith
