20 August 1930

Dear Professor Eiman,

The arrival of Wtb. IV. 2 gives me an excellent excuse for writing to you!
I am delighted to receive a new part.
Each one as it comes is so valuable for reference and one is impatient for the remaining letters.

We are at last within sight of the completion of the domestic profile. They MS. must be finished before we leave for the Sudan at the beginning of November.

My wife joins me in kindest remembrances to you and to Frau Eiman. Hoping that you are both well yours very sincerely

J. H. Griffith
