Sandridge, Boar's Hill, Oxford 6 Jan 1932.

I have still a few months to run before attaining the high status of and I must advise from my post in October To! May 27 is the date. But I accept your prophetic congratulations with much pleasure and gratitude. My wife and I look forward to your visiting this very attractive and healthy place (4 miles from Oxford and near the Davis and Sir Arthur Wang). How well I remember your description of your new house at Dahlen with the sound of chickens, etc.
Miss Moss was here this morning and received your message and the reference for Harwin with gratitude. Miss Porter can only be seen in her own house, where she gave up the dining-room for Bibliography while our men continued, and herself worked upstairs in her own room. She is as keen as ever but sadly disabled.

Yours

F. U. Griffith
