SANDRIDGE,
BOAR'S HILL,
OXFORD.
TEL. BOAR'S HILL 21.

12 VIII 32.

My dear Professor Emswiler,

I have asked the EES to send you a copy of the 'Studies' which they published. This is the only copy I am sending out to a friend, but I realize fully that it was your work which has always been the foundation of mine, and that it was your choice of me for the Berlin Academy that was my first great encouragement and ensured my success. To you I owe both learning and success!

Gunn has sent me your letter concerning the British Academy which has pleased me greatly.

Yours very sincerely
with constant gratitude

J. H. Piffith
