near Professor Erman,

I have just received a box of books and papers which I left at Gardiner's before I went to Egypt, and enclosed therein I find a copy of your and Dr. Grapow's Aegyptisches Handwörterbuch, sent to me by Hinrichs by the authors' instructions. I am of course delighted to receive a copy of this valuable work, and am also no less pleased that you should have remembered me in this friendly way. Please accept my hearty thanks for this present, and please also convey my thanks to Dr. Grapow.

I hope very much to come to Berlin next year, when I shall have the great pleasure of making your acquaintance and that of the other Egyptologists at Berlin. I do not yet know, however, whether that will be possible. I shall be here for some months longer.

Believe me, dear Dr. Erman,
Yours very sincerely,
Baltiscombe Grenfell.
