Dear Professor Erman

Your letter has been forwarded to me here & I have at once written to Messrs. Methuen to send you a copy of my book. I am so sorry you did not receive one before but I sent several & thought your name was on the list. You will see how freely I have used your book in my chapter on the "Ancient People" I hope you will find it correct, if I have made any mistakes I hope you will tell me. I know there are a few faults in the ^{book} on page 4

The date 1895 ought to be 1875 & on Page 340. The "Tomb of the Prophet Mohammed" - ought to be the Kaaba. I cannot think how such a fastidious mistake occurred as everyone knows Mohammed is buried at Medina. I am glad to say it is selling well & I have had several very good reviews I am having some press notices printed by Hutchinson & I will send you some.
Perhaps you may think it too thin of a sketch but it is the only book which joins the whole history together & people can always refer to larger & separate periods It was very difficult to choose portions of your delightful book I had to read it many times before I made up my mind -

I feel so glad you should have a copy of my Sketch of Egyptian History

Believe me

Yours very truly
Margaret Aubert
