Dear Professor Erman

I only received last night the book forwarded from England you have been so kind as to send me. I have only just looked at it but think it seems most delightful & I shall read it with great interest. I wish I could understand German more easily but with the help of my daughters I can make it out quite well. I am glad to Say Mr Newberry is staying with us here just now & I am sure he will read the book with great pleasure - I said I was writing to you & he begged me to send his best remembrances. It is kind of you to think of me & to send me such a charming gift, many thanks for it - My book is selling well I think, more people seem to like it & find it useful, about half the edition is sold which the publisher says is ing said for that kind of work - I have had many good reviews of it one lately in the "Bulletin Critique". I forget whether or not I sent you the "Opinions of the Press" so I enclose one now. We are enjoying lovely weather here the bright sunshine although of the kind is cool from the - mountains. The house we are building has come to a stand still in consequence of the General strike among the Masons, but I believe they are to begin again soon it is very precious as it was dearly won & we are so anxious to get into it -

With repeated thanks for your book

Believe me

Yours sincerely
