Dr. A. Erman,
Dahlem,
Peter-Lenke' Str. 36

My dear Dr. Erman: As Professor of Hebrew and Old Testament Literature, Boston University, I am spending a Sabbatical year abroad, studying in Berlin and Palestine. I have been hearing Dr. Suthé in the introductory course in Egyptian Hieroglyphics and am eager to meet the scholar whose grammar we have been using.

On next Monday I am journeying with my family to Cairo, and plan myself to take the Nile trip to Luxor and Assuan.
I should like to call upon you if I may at your convenience <sup>Early</sup> Saturday afternoon. I shall <sup>await</sup>~~phone~~ your response with keenest interest and, as the time is short, am enclosing a postcard for your reply.

With high regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Elmer A. Leslie
