Dear Sir

Please accept my and my Sister's best thanks for the most interesting book of yours, which you have so very kindly sent us. In any case it is a book which ~~would~~ we should value greatly, but how much is its value enhanced by your having so kindly sent it to us, & the knowledge that dear little

Lotte has done her part in its production. We thank you very much indeed, & I hope to be able before long to begin to read it.

We are so much looking forward to seeing Frau Professor in a few weeks, & feel greatly gratified that you are willing to confide your second daughter to our care.

With our kindest regards, & renewed thanks,

Believe me, dear Sir,

Yours very truly,

E. F. Maunders.

Kindly give Lotte the enclosed.
