Dear Prof. Eimann, many
"thanks for your kind letter and your valuable criticism. It's not to sleep, on the contrary, I am surprised by its mildness. It will influence the ~~work~~ ^{work} considerably, as far as it can be done with the ^{work} sheets. I hope, that the publication now has been arranged without great ^{trouble} for you! — I am writing some remarks for the 12 about the ^{introduction} ~~introduction~~ ^{at which} ~~at which~~ ^{nothing} will fill about 6 pages. Please keep the room open for them, they will be ready this week. Maybe also a small part of the other ms. can join it and a letter. I have been so sick with "la grippe" that I was unable to send you my best wishes for the New Year; will you accept them still now? With best regards to all friends

Yours very

sincerely
