KILBURN, N.W. 6.

July 23rd, '31.

Dear Sir,

Many thanks for your letter of the 9th, acknowledging the receipt of the reprint of my notice of your Erinnerungen in the Journal of the Royal Asiatic Society.

I was asked by the Secretary of the Society to write the notice, but though it gave me pleasure to do it, I undertook the task with a certain amount of diffidence. I hope, however, that I succeeded in indicating to the Members
the importance and the interest of your book.
I should have liked to describe it at greater length, but was prevented by considerations of space.

My remarks upon the time when British Egyptology was lying "fallow" was due to the fact that I did not wish it to be thought that my country was so very backward.

We had a few who were regarded as scholars at that time, and I wanted to mention the names of some who were prominent when I was young.

Wishing you both every success, I am,

Yours faithfully,

Theophilus G. Pinches.
