My dear Professor Ismael,

Thank you most heartily for sending me your book on Egyptian Religion. I have already read a little and shall read it all with very great interest. It is particularly kind of you to have sent it.

Whenever I hear from you it seems that I am in a hurry & scurry. Just now I am moving out to Jakkard.
I was there today and was Caught in a rain storm. Tomorrow my goods go out and, at latest, my wife and I will be established here on Sunday.

And so begins, inshallah, a long dig, and you will come out before long and tell me how I am getting on.

I suppose I shall be there for a series of years. Let us hope that Mariette has left me something!

Pardon the shortness of this note.

Remember me very kindly to your family! Ever yours, J. S. Quibell

Dear Mr. ...
I have been thinking of you very much lately and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you the same.
I have not much news
to write at present.
I am, dear Mr. ...
Yours truly,
...
